How can draw boxing gloves

As you probably know, the Drawingforall.net likes sports, especially boxing. In one of our previous lessons, our team of artists were already pulling punching bags. This lesson will continue the subject of boxing training, and will be devoted to how to pull off boxing gloves. Step 1 boxing gloves are very round and bulky, and we need to display this in our painting. So we design two circles and two rectangles above the circles. The initial steps should be done using very light lines. Step 2 : Let's make geometric figures look more like real boxing gloves. Draw the outlines of the gloves and separate the thumbs. On the upper part is the lacquer design, on which the gloves hang. Step 3 Now we need to carefully draw gloves with bright and dark lines, making the painting clean and neat. Don't forget the thicker lacquer. Step 4 Here we take care of the details of boxing gloves. Draw the necessary seams and wrinkles. Draw a visible part of the opening for the hand on the inner surface of the glove. Step 5 We just add some shadows, taking into light incidence angles. Incubation should not only create shadows and light in this way, but also create volume and make boxing painting more realistic and natural. The lesson of how to pull a boxing glove was made in the most detailed way. Our artists have tried to break down the lesson into several tailored and very easy steps, to achieve clarity and ease of the painting process. If we had achieved what we wanted and our training on pulling out boxing gloves was simple, then be sure to subscribe to us and share this lesson with your friends and generally with anyone who wants to become a real professional artist.
